

Man Charged Here on 3 Counts for Abortion

Man, Daughter Are Convicted at L. R.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Albert Tomlin and his daughter, Betty, 19, were convicted in Pulaski Circuit Court here yesterday on charges of false pretense.

The jury sent 18 years imprisonment for Tomlin but returned a 2-year suspended sentence for his daughter.

They were accused of writing a $150 check and fraudulently claiming they had an account at the First National Bank here.

Three charges of abortion were filed late Monday against James A. Smith, 48, manager of Electronics Enterprises, Inc., a small industry located in the Southwestern Proving Ground.

Smith was arrested by State and County and City officers following a day of questioning and investigation, according to Deputy Prosecuting Attorney C. V. Nunn Jr. He was released soon after his arrest on a bond of $2,500.

Mr. Nunn said officers seized a great deal of medical equipment and instruments in the offices of the Electronics plant which Smith apparently managed.

The Deputy Prosecutor indicated officers had information of six or seven successful abortions and several unsuccessful ones, although he declined to discuss in detail. Also withheld was information which led to the investigation which resulted in Smith's arrest. However, Mr. Nunn did not deny that the case involved local persons.

Smith has been a resident of Hope for the past five years, coming here from St. Louis. The SPG plant repairs generators, starters, electronic and radio equipment.

Lions Plan to Build New Youth Center in Hope

Hope Lions Club to sponsor construction of new youth center.

Lions Club President Cline Franks today announced tentative plans for the Hope Lions Club to sponsor the construction of a new and modern youth center for the young people of Hope.

President Franks said the club's decision came after a joint meeting of the Parks and Recreation Commission and a committee from the Lions Club. Franks said that the club felt that much progress had been made in the past 10 years towards development of a full year-round program for the youth of Hope, but, after consulting the Parks and Recreation Commission, it was evident that the young people need additional room and facilities for recreation.

A special committee will immediately start looking for an ideal site and it is the hopes and plans of the club to begin the project at an early date, according to Franks. He added that the new youth center would be turned over to the Parks and Recreation Commission as soon as completed.

Mr. Franks said it was his club's desire to sponsor and see the project through to completion but that such an undertaking would require the help and co-operation of every citizen in Hope and that he believes that the people of this city will give the club full backing in this worthwhile cause.

No Transfer Yet of Cash to Highway

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State officials market time today on a proposed transfer of three million dollars to the Highway Department. They waited for Gov. Orval Faubus, who has been out of town since Thursday, to return.

State Comptroller Kelly Cornett yesterday postponed the proposed transfer of funds from the state treasury reserve. He said he would have to talk to Faubus first.

The governor's office said Faubus would be back this week.

The Highway Commission formally requested he fund transfer last week to enable it to ease a temporary financial crisis. No remedy can be found through normal channels until Jan. 1.

Faubus is chairman of the state Board of Finance, which controls the state's bonded indebtedness. He has said he believes legislative action and highway bond holders' approval would be necessary for any fund transfer.

The attorney general's office has said three million dollars could be transferred without legislative action.

Sales Tax Is Far Short of Estimates

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Education Commissioner Arch Ford indicated that planned state aid to school districts may have to be reduced because tax increase collections are below anticipated amounts.

The state Board of Education will meet Thursday to discuss the state aid budget.

Ford said yesterday he will present a revenue report from state Budget Director Julian Hogan, who recently ordered all state departments and agencies to slash their expenditures by five per cent.

The 1957 Legislature increased the Arkansas sales tax from two to three per cent. A yearly tax increase of $16,500,000 was expected — 90 per cent earmarked for public schools.

The Education Department budget was based on the expected increase. But sales tax collections in the past three months have been $100,000 to $200,000 below expectations.

Lawyer Tells Probers of Home Deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph Jacobs, lawyer for the United Textile Workers Union testified today he knew they had testified today of UTW money into purchase of swank homes.

Jacobs of Atlanta, Ga., told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee he helped to write the 1953 report. He said rivalry with a CIO textile union was a factor in its failure to mention that union President Anthony Valente and Secretary-treasurer Lloyd Kienert had used the $57,000 toward buying homes for themselves.

Jacobs said the union committee's members were picked by Valente and that they wrote their report "not in the light of spelling out" everything that had been learned, but in the hope of presenting it "in the light that it could not be used by the CIO against our union."

He said the story about the 1953 home deal already "had been thrown against us" by one rival Textile Workers Union of America, then a CIO affiliate. UTW was in the AFL.

After freshening up a bit in a room furnished by Gene Smith of the Barlow Hotel they proceeded to the Diamond Cafe for a delicious lunch, courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rettig.

At the Chamber of Commerce office they were greeted by Curt Avery of Radio Station KXAR for an interview on tape to be broadcast later in the day. The following gifts were presented to them as a reminder of their visit with the people of Hope.

A Hope watermelon provided by the Chamber of Commerce, a basket of peaches by Mrs. Jolt Bundy, handles and souvenir baseball bats by Bruner-Ivory Handle Company, Baskets by Hope Basket Company, Hickory Chips by Spill Hickory Company, hickory charcoal and chipettes by Hickory Aroma Company, wrought iron fruit bowl by Lambricht Gift and Antique Shop, and a Hope, Arkansas apron by Mrs. John Keck.

Mr. Moten and his wife of Hamilton, New York were accompanied by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Birmingham of Jamestown, New York. Mr. Moten, as previously mentioned, is a police officer in Hamilton, home of Colgate University, and Mr. Birmingham is employed as a foreman at the Quarry of the Solvay Corporation and Dye Corporation, manufacturers of alkali and chemical products.

This Company has a plant in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, according to Mr. Birmingham. Mr. Birmingham also doubles as a deputy sheriff in his home town, Jamestown, which is on the outskirts of Syracuse. These two touring couples had been to Mexico City on vacation and were returning home by way of New Jersey to visit relatives. "This is one town that we will never forget," stated Mrs. Birmingham.

General Rain Would Help State Crops

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Crops in Arkansas would benefit from a general rain, the Crop Reporting Service said today.

The service, in its weekly report, said that cotton was making good progress even though moisture was getting low in some areas.

Rain would help the melon crop in the Hope area and Elberta peaches in the Nashville area, the agency said. Harvests of watermelons, cantaloupes and Elberta peaches are underway.

Good Arkansas has completed a good tomato harvest and the northern areas of the state are expected to have a good crop.

Harvesting of okra has begun in White and Chicot counties. Rice was reported making satisfactory progress in all areas.

'Sam's' Day Held at Lion Club Meeting

Yesterday at Hope Lions Club might be called "Sam's Day" as Sam Andrews, in charge of the program, presented Sam McWhorter, who gave a dramatic impersonation of "The Cremation of Sam McGee."

Lion McWhorter, appropriately dressed for the Arlec and aided by sound effects from a tape recorder, drew a tremendous round of applause from the club for his rendition.

Guests of the club and also on the program were the newly crowned, Judy McDowell as "Miss Hope" and Judy Franks as "Miss Hospitality."

Miss McDowell gave a brief summary on her trip to Clarksville where she was entered in the "Miss Arkansas Valley" contest and Miss Franks told of her coming trip to Little Rock where she will represent Hope at the High School All Star football game.

Other guests present were Coach Malcolm Burnette from Emmet, Jim Green, Jim Clitty, Jim Wingfield, Andy Andrews, Jack Honeycutt and Curt Avery. There were 44 members present.

Man Jailed for Beating Woman

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A man accused of beating and robbing an aged woman as she prayed in a Greenville, Miss., church, was jailed here yesterday.

Robert Raymond Penninger, of Greenville was confined on default of $5,000 bond after arraignment before U. S. Commissioner Washington Moore on a charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Penninger is accused of beating Miss Mabel Anderson, 74, last May 1 and robbing her of about $65 as she knelt alone in St. Joseph Catholic Church.

Police said Miss Anderson's attacker also took the contents of the church poor box.

Three Persons Slain by Gunman in New Mexico

CARLSBAD, N. M. (UP) — A truck driver and two girls he stopped to help were shot to death today by gunman authorities described as a "madman."

The most extensive manhunt in the history of the southwest for the slayer of trucker J. D. Cantrell, 26, of Carlsbad, N. M., and two Hobbs, N. M., girls, identified as Barbara Lemon and Dorothy Gibson, both in their 20's.

The truckers' body, punctured with five .22 caliber bullet wounds, was found by the side of his truck early this morning. The bodies of the girls were found about 10:15 a. m. on Buckeye road, about six miles of US 180, where the kidnapper took them after shooting the trucker.

The truck was found along the highway about 30 miles east of here, the body of Cantrell sprawled on the highway right of way.

Parked near the truck was a car which authorities identified as belonging to the two Hobbs girls. The car was jacked up and one tire flat.

Officers theorized the trucker stopped to help fix the flat, and that another motorist then shot the trucker and took the two girls.

Skid marks on the pavement indicated a fast getaway by another vehicle at the spot.

Five .22 caliber shell cases were found on the ground near the body. A class ring identified as belonging to one of the girls was found on the ground, indicating a struggle.

Robbery was discounted as the primary motive for the murders. Three purses were in the stalled car, and Cantrell's wallet was on his person. None had been rifled.

Sheffield's officers said the girls left a dance at Hobbs last night to return a male companion to Carlsbad, where he worked. They apparently were returning to Hobbs when the fatal occurred.

Site of the girls' bodies was 10 miles west of Hobbs, an oil community just west of the Texas-New Mexico line. The second murder scene was about 25 miles from where truck and car were found.

State Policeman J. A. Smith said "the killer is obviously dangerous — he's a madman."

The search was hampered by lack of witnesses.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UP) — Outsider John Kasper and six of 10 Clinton residents charged with contempt of court for violating a federal court integration order were convicted today. Four Clinton residents were acquitted of the same charges.

By RELMAN MORIN
KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A U. S. district court jury today began its deliberations of the fate of 11 Clinton segregation case defendants.

A lawyers' wrangle delayed the start of deliberations more than 20 minutes after U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor finished his charge to the jury.

The defense objected to Taylor's characterization of a vital part of the case as a "well-intentioned act from the standpoint of integration."

That episode involved the bloody beating of the Rev. Paul Turner, young Baptist minister in Clinton. He was assaulted last Dec. 4 after escorting six Negro students past segregationist advocates on the streets of the little highland town near Knoxville.

"From the standpoint of integration what the (Turner) did" was a "well-intentioned act," Taylor said in his charge to the jury.

When he finished his charge, Taylor excused the jury and asked the opposing lawyers "whether they had any objections or comments on it."

William Shaw, assistant attorney general of Louisiana, objected to the judge's description of the minister's action.

He also questioned whether, in the words of U. S. Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford Jr., Turner had a "perfect right to be there."

Shaw also asked if the judge "refreshed the memory of the jury as to reasonable doubt," and Crawford objected to that.

The jury came back but was excused a second time before Taylor finally sent the 10 men and two women off to begin deliberations.

The judge's face was grim when he began his 52-minute instructions.

In clear, simple language he outlined the origin of what is now known as the "Clinton Trial," going back to 1950.

He carefully explained the three parts of the government's charge against the 10 Tennessee defendants and John Kasper, Northern segregationist organizer.

Some husbands think the answer is to shower their wife with jewelry and furs. But there is a mistake. It only makes her more attractive to other men.

The thing to do, if you are a simple minded husband (and if the noun fits, the adjective follows), is to get your wife interested in something in your home she can never quite understand. The most suitable thing is electricity. It has everything the wayward feminine mind finds entrancing: power, subtlety, unpredictability.

The newly wed husband who is startled to find the bride yawning when he kisses her would do well to buy her an electric toaster.

This new toy will revive her interest in the home. When the husband finds that in time, however, she starts yawning as she puts the breakfast bread in the toaster, he should realize its simple mechanism bores her—just as he does. It is time for him to buy her a more advanced machine, such as an electric vacuum cleaner.

This will keep her content and humming for a full year. When boredom sets in again, the next move is to buy her a television set, then—in succession—an electric hair dryer, an electric dish washer, an electric oven, an electric message chair, a series of electric air conditioners, an electric freezer and an electric clothes washer.

By now you've got your girl wired in forever. She doesn't have time to be bored. If one machine peters out, another starts clanking fearfully, and she forgets her own woes as she gets out her tool kit to repair it.

Your wife may not feel she is a for remained to be given before the 10 men and two women started their deliberations.

This is the first major instance where a Southern jury has been called to decide a legal case involving an integrated school siting. The Supreme Court ruled that segregation is unconstitutional. All the jurors are white.

"You have history in your hands today," a Southern defense attorney told the jury in his summation. Another, in a voice vibrant with feeling, urged the jurors to "consider the effect on your grandchildren and their children's children as you decide the fate of these defendants."

There are 11 people on trial, 10 Tennesseans, including a woman, and John Kasper, Northern segregationist who came to Clinton two days before Negroes were admitted to the high school there last autumn.

The U. S. government has charged them with criminal contempt of court. They are accused of conspiring with Kasper to keep Negro students out of the high school in defiance of Taylor's desegregation order, and his later injunction banning interference with the order.

The maximum penalty is six months in jail or $1,000 fine, or both.

port for a proposal by Senators Anderson (D-NM) and Aiken (R-Va) to strip from the bill powers to enforce other civil rights.

Knowland told reporters he still thinks the bill's supporters can save some vestiges of the authority the House voted to give the attorney general toward the enforcement of equal rights.

However, Democratic nose counts were reported to have indicated upwards of 60 senators—a dozen more than the required 48—lining up behind the Anderson-Aiken proposal to strike most of Part 3 from the House-passed bill.

This part would authorize the attorney general to move on his own initiative to bring civil injunction suits to prevent interference with racial integration in the schools and public places in the South.

Backed by Knowland, Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) tossed into the hopper a proposed to limit such enforcement action to cases in which the President specifically directed the attorney general to act.

This was obviously designed to chip away some of the Republican support for the Anderson-Aiken proposal.

slave to you, but she is a slave to all the wilderness of electrical gadgets you have surrounded her with and she is happy in her thralldom. She is happy because she dwells in eternal mystery—the mystery of electricity which even a woman cannot ever hope to understand fully.

You can bark at her or beat her, and she will never divorce you. She will reason thusly, "What go away and let that bum brine in some other woman, who will ruin all these beautiful electric gadgets I've given my life to! Never!"

Hats off, husbands, to the memory of the saviour of the American home—Thomas A. Edison.

British Planes Show Forces Over Persia

By RONALD THOMSON

LONDON (AP)—British warplanes were reported launching a three-stage show of force today against rebellious tribesmen holding 5,000 square miles of the Persian Gulf state of Muscat and Oman.

Press dispatches from the new Middle East trouble spot said RAF planes had been ordered to throw leaflets demanding that the rebels abandon their four-day-old desert war against the pro-British Sultan of the little sultanate at the southeast corner of the Arabian Peninsula.

Cannon-firing Meteor and Venom jets were reported ready in stage "demonstrations" strikes over rebel-held villages if the leaflets were ignored.

Should the insurgents go on fighting, the dispatches said, planes will be sent in to shoot up supply lines and paralyze rebel movements throughout the region. The British, who have pledged aid for 16-year-old Sultan Said bin Taimur and accused "outside" forces of stirring up the revolt against him, appeared hopeful the uprising can be put down with only a show of air power.

Any big-scale commitment of British forces in the Sultan's internal troubles would bring the Conservative government under fierce Socialist attacks in Parliament.

The Laborites already were talking about a "second Suez." They warn that British intervenlition in Muscat and Oman might cause a new Middle East flare-up and damage the hard won reconciliation of British-American policies in the region.

Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd told the House of Commons last night that, as far as he knew, there were no British troops in Muscat and Oman.

More Liberal Drought Credit Is Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas congressmen are pressing for more liberal government credit to drought and flood-stricken farmers.

Reps. Trimble and Hays told the House Agriculture Subcommittee yesterday the Trimble bill would require the Farmers Home Administration to liberalize some of its regulations and practices.

Testifying with the congressmen were state Sen. J. O. Porter of Mulberry, Ark., and L. H. King of Clarksville.

Porter and King told the committee that few if any FHA loans have been made in Arkansas drought flood sections which were dashed and loss of confidence in the government resulted.

The Trimble bill would allow a farmer with an FHA loan to delay repayment for a year if he has met with a weather disaster. It would require that FHA production loans be repayable in seven years. Rep. Hill (R-Colo.) suggested that the Trimble bill provided nothing the FHA cannot already do if it chooses. He said the trouble in Arkansas might lie with the administration of the aid.

Henry C. Smith, deputy FHA Administrator, said The Agriculture department opposes the Trimble bill. It does not believe there is a need for a moratorium on debts owed to the FHA, Smith said.

The marriage of Betty Bittle Adkins and Thurman Wright was solemnized at six-thirty Friday afternoon, July 19, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil M. Bittle. Mr. Wright is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Wright of Spring Hill.

Rev. Gus Poole, Boarden, Arkansas, uncle of the bride, read the double ring ceremony before a background of greenery and white gladioli.
The bride wore an afternoon dress of orchid sheer cotton, the bouffant skirt attached to the shirred bodice with an elegantly embroidered empire waist band. Her matching shell hat was covered with tiny flowers and she carried a white Bible topped with a crescent of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Miss Jimmie Berser, aunt of the bride and her only attendant, was attired in pink cotton and carried a cascade of aqua carnations. Terrell Wright was his brother's best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bittle wore sage voile with black accessories. Mrs. Wright, mother of the bridegroom, chose green shantung and white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

A garden reception immediately followed the ceremony. Centered with an arrangement of lavender summer flowers, the brides table was covered with a pink cloth overlaid with white. net gathered in points containing nosegays of the lavender flowers. Assisting were Mrs. Burl Verser, Mrs. Terrell Wright and Mrs. Elsie Collins. Miss Billie Evans was in charge of the brides book.

Following a trip to Pettit Jean Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Wright will be at home at 5206 Lancaster Drive, Odessa, Texas.

Coming and Going

Mrs. Dean Strand and sons, Michael and Jeffery have returned home to Chicago, Ill., after a two weeks visit with her mother, Mrs. E. L. Archer Sr., and other relatives and friends.

The Lauffman children, Stanley, Jackie and Gail who have been spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Davis have returned home to White Creek, Tenn.

Mrs. Edna Davis is the guest of Mrs. Eunice Eubanks and Mrs. Wyatt Davis.

Three Steps to a new figure

1. Mrs. Mildred Hoy took her first step toward a new figure when she called her STAUFFER HOME REDUCING PLAN representative.
2. She reported wonderful results from Stauffer's "lying down" exercise and caloric reduction within 1 week.
3. 2½ months later, Mrs. Hoy had lost 32½ pounds and 21 inches from her overall measurements.

Truly successful reducing, as Mrs. Hoy states, combines effortless exercise and caloric reduction. You can do this while relaxing at home on the famous Posture Rest®.

Can Traveling Salesman Be a Faithful Husband?

Dear Dorothy Dix: Jerry and I have fallen in love. We both work for a large company in which Jerry is a travelling salesman. I've heard they don't make dependable husbands. Is this true? — YVONNE

Dear Yvonne: The man makes the job the job doesn't make the man. Stationary husbands aren't necessarily rocks of Gibraltar when it comes to dependability. Travelling men have every opportunity to get away with something, but whether they take advantage of it or not is a matter of personal conscience.

The wife of a travelling man must have faith in her husband. If she can't have confidence in him, whether away or not, the marriage is a farce. The one big objection to your marriage is that it will spell loneliness for you both. But think of the thrill when Jerry comes home! The gaps can be filled with phone calls and letters. Perhaps you can take some trips with him. You're in love — get married!

Dear Dorothy Dix: Since my marriage six years ago, my husband and I have spent every Saturday afternoon at his parents' home. I'm getting tired of it. Lately I have suggested that my husband go alone. He does, but is most disagreeable about it. — T. L.

Dear T. L.: A marriage without sacrifice isn't worth the paper on which your lines are written. Family visits should be made together; you're storing up trouble by refusing to accompany your husband.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm in love with Sonny but he can't make up his mind between me and another girl. While he's renegeing a decision, he doesn't want me to date other boys. — B. C.
Dear B. C. That reasoning is for Zhukov Won't Be Invited to Visit U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov reportedly will not get an invitation to visit the United States.

But the State Department has been quietly assuring European allies that they will be kept fully informed of any talks held between U.S. and Soviet defense officials.

Western Nations apparently were upset last week by President Eisenhower's news conference statement that an exchange of visits between Zhukov and Secretary of Defense Wilson might be useful.

Eisenhower and Zhukov served together in Berlin in 1945. The President has spoken favorably of Zhukov in the past, but apparently his remarks Wednesday caught the State Department unaware.

Officials said later that Eisenhower, in his impromptu expressions, never meant to indicate there was any plan to invite Zhukov here. They said such an idea had been considered earlier — when Zhukov won a top Kremlin post in a shakeup last month — but that it had been discarded. U.S. officials did not rule out the possibility that Russia might take to the idea and invite Wilson to Moscow.

Wednesday for the first time!

A traveling salesman was Harry G. Blowe,
Who could sell ice cubes to an eskimo,
But he fell for a line slicker than his,
From a new car salesman—wow! what a whiz!
The car had style—years out of date,
The features were new—back in '48!
Harry's still smiling, the tears hardly show,
But how he wishes he could get back his dough!

Moral: Don't get "bargain-talked" into yesterday's styling and features!

Like a lot of people, Harry was looking for a "good buy" in a new car. But no car is a bargain if it's outmoded before you drive it a mile. For the same money, Harry could have stepped up to a dashing Swept-Wing Dodge—so new it actually obsolesces other cars in its field. Obsolesces their high, boxy design with the low, low look of tomorrow. Obsolesces their old-fashioned features with such advances as Torsion-Aire Ride, Push-Button TorqueFlite and Total-Contact Brakes. So don't do what Harry did—please. See your Dodge dealer today.

Join the swing to the Swept-Wing Dodge!

Local NFA Chapter
Participates in ALMMOT Contest in Jefferson City, Mo.

Four members of the Yerger
High School Vocational Agriculture Department participated in the ALMMOT Contest held in Jefferson City, Mo., July 17. They were: Charles Shepherd, Jacob Williams, James McFadden and Author Newton. They joined the other representatives in Pine Bluff and made a group of 16 delegates from Arkansas.

The ALMMOT Contest is a six state organization of NFA Chapters, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri and Texas.
Each state had contestants participating in Public Speaking, Quiz Quartette and Talent. The Yerger group represented Arkansas in two of the four features. The quartette directed by Mrs. Neva Carmichael won 3rd place. The talent number a vocal solo done by Arthur Newton and accompanied by Mrs.
Edna Spearman won 3rd place also winning 3rd place makes the Yerger group eligible for the all expense paid trip to participate in the National NFA contest to be held in Atlanta in September. They will be given NFA jackets and will sing in the National NFA Choir.

A reception, tour of some of the prominent places in the city and a picnic was special hospitalities extended to the entire delegation.
On Thursday the six state delegation traveled in a motorcade to Kansas City, Mo., to witness the Base Ball game between the Boston Red Sox and the Kansas City Athletics. This too was a wonderful experience and very enjoyable.
The vocational Agriculture department offers to pupils who can qualify or prepare themselves very rich experiences. Not only male but female also. The Sweet Heart Contest won by a Yerger
High School student last year (Shirley Robinson) won for her a scholarship worth over $400.00.
The same scholarship has been offered Arthur Newton and Carlotta Grishy. This should inspire more young pupils to spend much time in developing their various talents.
H. C. Smith heads the Agriculture Vocational Department at Yerger.

Man Sought in Rape of Student Nurse

SAN FRANCISCO, (UP) —Police broadcast an alarm throughout Northern California today for a man who raped a pretty student nurse, then abused her with implements he carried in a well prepared "torture kit."

The incident took place early yesterday in Golden Gate Park while the nurse's husky escort, James Lonergan, 26, lay bound and gagged in his car. Lonergan finally managed to crawl free and shout for help.

The 19-year-old victim was treated at Central Emergency hospital. Between fits of hysterical sobbing, she told police the story of two hours of terror.

Lonergan and the student nurse were returning late Saturday night from a dinner date. He stopped his car on Lincoln Way, a busy street bordering Golden Gate Park, to check a possible gas leak.

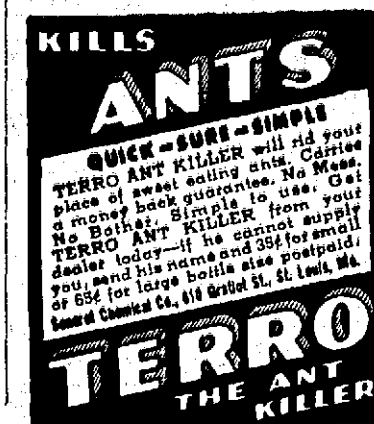

As he climbed back into the car, a young man approached him and put a knife at his back.

"I want no trouble, only your wallet," the man said.

He climbed into the rear seat and ordered Lonergan to drive into the park. Lonergan obeyed. At a lonely spot only 75 yards from Lincoln Way, he ordered Lonergan to stop.

From a cardboard kit box, the man drew out a roll of adhesive tape. He proceeded to bind Lonergan's hands and feet with it. Then he taped his eyes and mouth.
